

Experience London Study Away May 2025

BUS4880 Travel Study in Business and Public Policy | 4 credit hours

London has been at the forefront of English society for over 2,000 years and is brimming with attractions and landmarks ideal for students interested in politics, business, law, history, and justice systems. On this trip, students will participate in a variety of guided tours, excursions, and corporate visits, including the Houses of Parliament, Tower of London, Piccadilly Circus, Westminster Abbey, a cybersecurity company, the Financial District, Lloyds of London, and a Premier League football club.

Students will share travel and select itinerary items with fellow AU students in the CRJ3880 International Crime and Justice course, creating an opportunity for students to connect with their peers while abroad.

Course dates:

See course description in Self-Service.
